

GENERAL CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Academic Integrity
Students must uphold honesty and originality in all academic work. Plagiarism, cheating, or unauthorized collaboration is strictly prohibited.
2. Attendance and Participation
Students are expected to attend all scheduled online sessions on time and participate actively in discussions, activities, and assignments. A minimum of 75% attendance is mandatory.
3. Professional Communication
All communication—emails, chats, and discussion forums—must be respectful, polite, and professional at all times.
4. Technology Privacy and Security
Digital platforms must be used responsibly and solely for educational purposes. Sharing login credentials or access codes with unauthorized individuals is not permitted.
5. Bullying and Harassment Policy
Any form of bullying, harassment, or discrimination based on race, gender, religion, or any other characteristic is strictly prohibited. Such incidents must be reported immediately to school authorities.
6. Dress Code
Students are expected to follow a decent and appropriate dress code during online classes.

CLASSROOM CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Designated Study Space
Students should attend classes from a quiet, well-lit, and distraction-free study area at home.
2. Learning Materials
Maintaining separate notebooks for each subject is encouraged to ensure better organization and focus.
3. Camera Usage Policy
Cameras must remain switched on during all teaching and learning activities unless otherwise instructed.
4. Punctuality
Students should log in at least 5 minutes before the scheduled start time of each class.
5. Active Engagement
Meaningful participation in class discussions, activities, and assignments is expected from all students.
6. Attendance Responsibility
Regular attendance is mandatory. Teachers must be informed in advance in case of unavoidable absence.

UNITY PROTOCOL

1. Respectful Behaviour
All members of the school community must treat one another with respect, irrespective of cultural, religious, or social backgrounds.
2. Inclusive Communication
Language used should be inclusive, sensitive, and respectful. Offensive, derogatory, or inappropriate remarks are unacceptable.
3. Celebration of Diversity
Students are encouraged to appreciate and celebrate cultural and religious diversity within the school community.
4. Avoidance of Stereotypes
Stereotyping or making assumptions based on cultural or religious identity is strictly discouraged.

5. Participation in Learning Initiatives
Students should actively participate in activities and programs that promote intercultural understanding, tolerance, and mutual respect.
6. Parental Support
Parents are encouraged to reinforce values of inclusion, respect, and cultural sensitivity at home.

PARENT CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Respect for Live Sessions
Parents are requested not to interrupt live online classes.
2. Official Communication Channels
All academic, fee-related, or book-related queries should be directed to the designated Parent Relationship Officer (PRO).
3. Respect for School Staff
Parents must treat teachers, administrators, and support staff with courtesy and professionalism.
4. Grievance Redressal
Any concerns or grievances should be raised through the school's established procedures and communication channels.
5. Timely Intimation of Absences
Parents should promptly inform the school about any student absence or late arrival, along with a valid reason.
6. Constructive Feedback
Parents are encouraged to share constructive feedback and suggestions to strengthen the parent-school partnership.
